Welcome Letter

Dear New Patient,

I'd like to take a moment to welcome you as a new patient of The Axelarad Clinic. Thank you for choosing us. We look forward to partnering with you to address your health concerns, and we will do all we can to ensure you achieve the most successful result possible for you.

The trust and confidence you have placed in us is most appreciated. We see many patients which respond favorably to acupuncture care. Our mission is to help you achieve your treatment goals, and to maintain optimal health over the long-term using safe, natural and holistic acupuncture, herbal therapy (when appropriate), and nutritional guidance and support.

Traditional Chinese Medicine, the ancient health care system of which acupuncture is a part, definitely works.

1. It can help prevent illness and disease
2. It activates the self-healing and self-regulating abilities of the body.
3. It adjusts and balances the flow of vital life energy, called Qi.
4. It can help you achieve optimal health, vitality, and well-being.

The precious gift of health is an investment that takes both time and money. In order to help you to get the most out of this worthwhile investment I would like to share a few suggestions:

1. Be on time and keep your appointments. Each treatment builds upon previous ones. It is important to follow through with your future care plan in order to receive maximum benefit.
2. Do your homework. In many ways what you do at home, at work and at play affects your progress. We offer suggestions and self-care techniques to support you on the road to your treatment goals toward a life of increased wellness and vitality.
3. Give it time. As with any medical treatment, healing with acupuncture is a process, not a magic pill. It takes time and is influenced by many factors. Over time, things should improve and if necessary, we will adjust your treatment plan as we proceed. Changes to your condition can happen faster than anticipated, so enjoy them!
4. Keep a positive attitude and EXPECT positive results. As we follow through on your treatment plan, look for signs of improvement and take encouragement from them. Build an attitude that expects positive results and knows that profound healing is possible. Your belief and expectation has an incredibly strong influence on your body, and is a key factor in healing.

It is a great pleasure to welcome you to the clinic!

Welcome Letter for Fertility Patients

Dear New Patient,

I want to salute your courage and dedication. The desire to have a child is one of the most optimistic things a person can do on this Earth. I understand and empathize with how difficult it can be when this incredibly optimistic and positive hope suddenly becomes mixed with desperation and disappointment. I want to encourage you to discuss your feelings about your situation during our visits. I promise I and my staff will listen with an attentive ear and will do whatever we can to ease your journey through what can be a very difficult time.

Your fertility quest is an investment that takes both time and money. In order to help you to get the most out of this worthwhile investment I would like to share a few additional suggestions not covered in the general welcome letter:

1. Try to follow the program as closely as you can. We try our best to keep the suggestions we make both practical and efficient. At the end of the day, your choices and priorities will guide you best. However, there will be certain changes we will suggest that will be very important. We will make sure you understand which ones these are, and we strongly encourage you to make sure you follow these important suggestions to the letter – they are born out of much study and experience working with many, many people such as yourself.
2. Take a break from thinking about getting pregnant for six months. I know that sounds strange, but I really do want you to let go of your pregnancy goal a little bit. This does not mean you will stop having intercourse, and it does not mean that you won't get pregnant soon. We will be doing targeted nutritional supplementation, herbal support, and Acupuncture therapy to balance and harmonize your endocrine system. I want you to have a simple trust that the positive changes in your mind and body are definite indicators that you are more fertile. Treat the sixth month like it is the first month. Do not think of the sixth month as a deadline. We will re-evaluate at the end of six months if you are still not pregnant to see what the next steps will be. Until that time, relax and enjoy the process of self-care that you will be undertaking.
3. Plan fun things and enjoy life as much as possible. Think of things you like to do, that are fun for you. It may help to think back to childhood to things that you enjoyed doing. Pick one or two things and make them regular occasions. For instance, if you really enjoyed playing tennis as a child or young adult, start playing tennis again. If you were an avid camper, plan a camping trip soon. Anything you can do to relieve stress and increase pleasure is good. Your body takes cues from your mind about what to do, and when you take time for enjoyment and fun, your body relaxes and feels safe. This can do nothing but help it express its reproductive intelligence.

It is a great pleasure to welcome you to the clinic!

Yours in Health and Wellness,

Chris Axelrad, M.S.O.M., L. Ac., FABORM

VERY IMPORTANT : IVF/IUI Support Orientation Letter

Please read this carefully, it is important that you know this information ahead of time.

We do everything we can to make sure you are oriented properly on this information and that all your appointments are correctly scheduled. However, we must also rely on you to keep us updated on the status of your IVF or IUI cycle, as there are varying protocols practiced by the doctors depending on your individual situation. Timing, medications, and other factors can vary quite a bit from patient to patient. We kindly ask for your help in keeping us informed of your individual process at all times.

1. Please keep your clinician informed at all times of medications you are taking or will be taking. During your fertility treatment with your doctor, you may take various medications before, during and after your cycle. We are certainly experienced enough to know the various protocols that many doctors use, but your situation is individual and you should never assume we know what you are taking or when you will start taking it. Your clinician will always do his/her best to ask you for updates on where you are in your fertility treatment process. However, ultimately it is your responsibility to keep him/her informed of your current status at each visit.
2. Never take herbal medicines while you are taking injections of ovarian stimulants (called 'gonadotropins') such as Follistim, Gonal-F, Menopur, etc. As a general rule we advise our patients to never take these drugs simultaneously with herbs. We often prescribe herbal medications to help you prepare for your cycle. We will make every effort to inform you which items in your treatment plan must be discontinued prior to starting the stimulation phase of your IVF or IUI cycle. However, please make sure you ask your clinician which substances on your treatment plan are herbal, as you must ultimately be responsible for stopping them before you start your stimulant injections.
3. There are two important visits that are part of our IVF-IUI protocol. This differs slightly based on whether you are doing IVF or IUI:
 - a. IVF Patients – You will follow your treatment plan (i.e. weekly visits or twice-weekly visits) until the week of your embryo transfer. That week, we will do two treatments:
 - i. The Pre-Transfer Treatment – This is done within the 24 hours prior to your transfer, and it is designed to relax the uterus, calm the nervous system, and enhance blood flow to the uterus.
 - ii. The Post-Transfer Treatment – This is done 4 or 5 days after your transfer and is designed to keep the nervous system and uterus calm as implantation is getting underway.
 - b. IUI Patients – You will follow your treatment plan (i.e. weekly visits or twice-weekly visits) until the week of your insemination. That week, we will do two treatments:
 - i. The Pre-IUI Treatment – this is done within the 24 hours prior to your insemination, and it is designed to relax the uterus (so it will not overact to the insemination procedure), calm the nervous system, and enhance blood flow to the uterus.
 - ii. The Post-IUI Treatment – This is done 4 or 5 days after your insemination and is designed to keep the nervous system and uterus calm as implantation is getting underway.
 - c. As you draw closer to your Embryo Transfer or IUI date, we will schedule these appointments for you. Keep your front desk attendant informed as this date approaches so we can make sure you are on the schedule. If necessary, we will see you on a weekend or holiday to accommodate your IVF/IUI schedule.

When we are working together and keeping each other informed, we can be confident that our support of your IVF or IUI cycle goes smoothly and delivers the best possible results.

ACUPUNCTURE INFORMED CONSENT TO TREAT

I hereby request and consent to the performance of acupuncture treatments and other procedures within the scope of the practice of acupuncture on me (or on the patient named below, for whom I am legally responsible) by the acupuncturist named below and/or other licensed acupuncturists who now or in the future treat me while employed by, working or associated with or serving as back-up for the acupuncturist named below, including those working at the clinic or office listed below or any other office or clinic, whether signatories to this form or not.

I understand that methods of treatment may include, but are not limited to, acupuncture, moxibustion, cupping, electrical stimulation, Tui-Na (Chinese massage), Chinese herbal medicine, and nutritional counseling. I understand that the herbs may need to be prepared and the teas consumed according to the instructions provided orally and in writing. The herbs may be an unpleasant smell or taste. I will immediately notify a member of the clinical staff of any unanticipated or unpleasant effects associated with the consumption of the herbs.

I have been informed that acupuncture is a generally safe method of treatment, but that it may have some side effects, including bruising, numbness or tingling near the needling sites that may last a few days, and dizziness or fainting. Bruising is a common side effect of cupping. Unusual risks of acupuncture include spontaneous miscarriage, nerve damage and organ puncture, including lung puncture (pneumothorax). Infection is another possible risk, although the clinic uses sterile disposable needles and maintains a clean and safe environment. Burns and/or scarring are a potential risk of moxibustion and cupping. I understand that while this document describes the major risks of treatment, other side effect and risks may occur. The herbs and nutritional supplements (which are from plant, animal and mineral sources) that have been recommended are traditionally considered safe in the practice of Chinese Medicine, although some may be toxic in large doses. I understand that some herbs may be inappropriate during pregnancy. Some possible side effects of taking herbs are nausea, gas, stomachache, vomiting, headache, diarrhea, rashes, hives, and tingling of the tongue. I will notify a clinical staff member who is caring for me if I am or become pregnant.

I do not expect the clinical staff to be able to anticipate and explain all possible risks and complications of treatment, and I wish to rely on the clinical staff to exercise judgment during the course of treatment which the clinical staff thinks at the time, based upon the facts then known is in my best interest. I understand that results are not guaranteed.

I understand the clinical and administrative staff may review my patient records and lab reports, but all my records will be kept confidential and will not be released without my written consent.

By voluntarily signing below, I show that I have read, or have had read to me, the above consent to treatment, have been told about the risks and benefits of acupuncture and other procedures, and have had an opportunity to ask questions. I intend this consent form to cover the entire course of treatment for my present condition and for any future condition(s) for which I seek treatment.
